

I believe NJ's No Call List should stay the way that it is. I do not believe that telemarketers should have more rights than the citizens who live in this state.